GERMANS GIVE SLOWLY BEFORE FRENCH ATTACK

Clear Great Forest of Remaining German Troops After Hard Battle

WOODED PLATEAU NOW FACED BY GEN. NIVELLE

British Advance Slowed Down By Weather Near Saint Quentin

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, March 28.—The southern wing of the retreating German army is slowly recoiling along a ten-mile front under the furious onslaughts of the French. The first section of great Coucy St. Gobain forests has been completely cleared of the invaders, and Gen. Nivelle's troops are now face to face with the last formidable natural barrier which lies between them and Laon—the plateau of St. Gobain.

This densely wooded plateau lies between the Oise and Ailette and is about 10,000 acres in extent, rising from about 80 to 200 feet in height. No railways or high road traverse it but an important railroad sweeps around its southern border and runs north to Chauny. This road is in the hands of the French up to within about three miles of Anizy which is ten miles west of Laon. To the north the French are about two miles from the town of St. Gobain, center of the most famous glass factories in Europe. St. Gobain is 13 miles northwest of Laon.

No change has taken place in the neighborhood of St. Quentin where the Germans are still making desperate efforts to wrest from the French the Bessigny-Benay plateau, undisputed possession of which will, according to military critics, render the fall of the city inevitable. Further north the British have made some slight progress but no material change in the situation has taken place. Bad weather is reported to be seriously interfering with operations on this portion of the front.

Sporadic fighting has occurred in several of the other war theatres but nothing to indicate the commencement of major operations.

Apparently the Russians have no need to apprehend an attack in force by the Germans on the northern front, towards Petrograd, in the immediate future. Warnings that such an attack was impending were recently issued in the Russian capital based on German concentrations along this front and it has been thought that Berlin might take advantage of the possible disorganization of the Russians, due to the recent radical change in the form of government and press an offensive. The spring thaw has now set in along the whole front, however, and operations on a large scale will be impossible here for some weeks.

MOTOR BOAT WITH EXPLOSIVES FOUND NEAR FORT TOTTEN

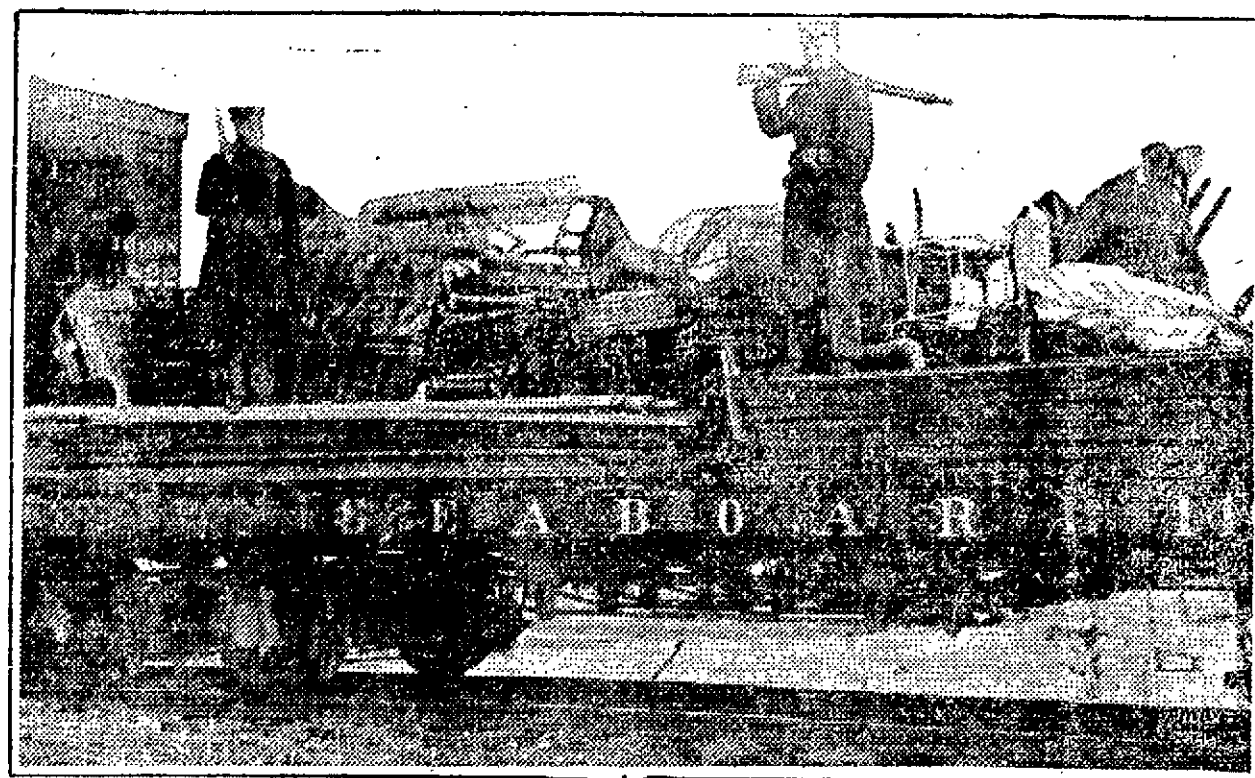

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, March 28.—Discovery of a motorboat containing 40 pounds of dynamite and 16 detonating caps within a half mile of Fort Totten and not far from a United States destroyer on neutrality duty led to the detention by the police of a man who said he was Matthias Johnson of Perth Amboy, N. J. Johnson said he was a wrecker, who had come from Perth Amboy to blow up a wreck and had put in for shelter at the basin near the fort because of rain and darkness. The police authorities asserted he produced no license as a wrecker or to transport dynamite.

DISPLAY THE FLAG

Whereas, Our country is confronted with an international situation of the most serious importance and it is an occasion when every loyal American citizen should indicate in every way his appreciation of the many advantages he enjoys under the Stars and Stripes, and

Whereas, Other cities throughout the country, through public demonstrations and display of national flags and emblems on their business places, homes, manufacturing plants and on their persons are outwardly testifying their devotion to the land of the free and the home of the brave;

It is fitting that Newark, a city which is rarely blessed with the advantages of protection under our constitution, should take part in this nationwide testimonial of fidelity to our country.

Therefore, I, R. C. Bigbee, mayor of the city of Newark, do call upon the public to join in a united movement for displaying the American flag on business places, residences and buildings of all kinds, also to wear on their persons miniature flags as an evidence that Newark is unserving in allegiance to our beloved country and its citizens and residents will do their part in protecting its rights and honor. Let us all do our bounden duty.

Witness my hand and seal this 28th day of March, A. D. 1917.

R. C. BIGBEE, Mayor.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Albany, N. Y., March 28.—After a stormy debate, during which personalities were freely exchanged, and the patriotism of Assemblyman Abraham A. Shipplackoff, a Socialist, was assailed, the assembly today adopted a resolution to place the New York legislature on record in favor of the principle of universal military training and service as outlined in the Chamberlain bill, which was before the last session of congress.

Shipplackoff compared the Chamberlain bill to a conscription law and his position was attacked by other members.

GERMAN HAD MAPS AND NOTES; SENDS WORD INTO MEXICO

(Associated Press Telegram)
Rochester, N. Y., March 28.—Adolf Vattes, a German, is under arrest in Geneva on the technical charge of attempted suicide pending the arrival there of federal officers from Buffalo. The discovery of a letter he had written telling of visits to plants at Springfield, Mass., and other cities where he “found conditions all right and had flashed a notice to the German agent for transmission to Mexico,” led to his arrest. Later he attempted to kill himself with a knife. Vattes arrived in Geneva seven days ago and obtained employment at an automobile school. A search of his personal effects revealed maps, clippings, photographs and other suspicious documents.

Bodley Thrown Under Train at Coshocton; Loses His Life While Seeking New Position

While relatives here were endeavoring to locate Ray Bodley of this city in Coshocton last evening to inform him of the serious illness of his mother, the mangled remains of the young man were awaiting identification in the morgue of an undertaker in that city. He was killed by a west bound Pennsylvania freight train yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at 4th Street and Fifth Street in that city.

Roy Bodley was aged 22 years and lived with his wife and little daughter in Jackson Street. He had been employed at the Newark Stamping and Foundry company plant but left there to seek employment elsewhere, going to Coshocton Monday afternoon. He had attempted to secure a position in that city and remained at the home of a friend, John Crawford, over night. It is said he had been promised a position in the glass factory and was returning to this city when the accident occurred.

An eye witness to the scene stated that the young man attempted to alight from a train and ran along the side of a car holding onto something and he was thrown under the wheels. His head was horribly crushed. His left foot was also crushed into shreds. The body was bruised and a number of cuts and gashes made.

A physician, Dr. Lister Pomeroy, was nearby at the time and hastened to the scene of the accident, but Bodley was dead. The body was viewed by Coroner J. G. Smalley and removed to a local morgue and later in the evening was identified by Carl Siegel, an employee of the Coshocton Glass factory, who formerly resided in this city. Relatives in this city were notified and this morning the father, William Bodley, and a brother, Frank, and Undertaker E. C. Criss left for Coshocton and returned with the body this afternoon at 12:50 o'clock.

The unfortunate young man is survived by his wife and a little daughter, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bodley of Jackson Street, four brothers, Frank of Franklin addition, Homer and Alva of the home and Pearl, employed at Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. Willard Wright of Buena Vista street and Nellie of the home.

The mother's condition is so serious that she has not yet been informed of the tragedy.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

MANN ABANDONS HOPE FOR CHANCE TO BE SPEAKER

Willing to Be Candidate if Two Tickets Put Into the Field

CONGRESS IS READY TO CONSIDER WAR MEASURES

Problem of Civilian Help In War Bureaus Confronts Washington

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 28.—Hopes for a non-partisan organization of the house of representatives at the special session next week was virtually abandoned today by representative Mann, Republican leader, in the last house and proponent of the plan.

After a conference with Speaker Clark, Democrat leader Kitchen and Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee, Mr. Mann said he saw little hope for coalition.

“I still stand where I stood originally,” he said, “but I think two tickets will be put into the field. I am willing to be the Republican candidate for speaker if the Republicans want me to run and I think I shall be the candidate if one is named.”

Congressional leaders today gave informal consideration to the legislative program to meet the national emergency but it was emphasized that definite steps to that end would not be taken until after President Wilson delivers his address to congress soon after it convenes in extraordinary session next Monday.

Meantime, steps to put the nation in a state of readiness to meet any eventuality, went ahead actively. More than fifteen thousand National Guardsmen were under orders today to remain in the federal service for protection duty at industrial plants and other property in their respective states. Altogether, about fifty thousand guardsmen have now been called out for this purpose.

President Wilson was in conference today with Colonel E. M. House, his house guest and personal adviser, but it was said that he does not plan to put his message to congress in final shape until the last.

Newark Boys Called To Colors To Guard Strategic Points

Half Dozen Ordered to Report to National Guard Units at Zanesville--More Militia Troops Called for State Service

WANT NEW REGIMENT IN EASTERN OHIO COUNTIES

Adjutant General Gives Nine Counties Opportunity to Organize Regiment of National Guard—Governor Cox Hopes to See United States Troops Fighting In French Trenches—Headquarters Officers Refuse to Divulge Location of Troops Other Than to Say They Are Located at Strategic Points

Several Newark men, members of the Zanesville companies A. and E. of the Ohio National Guard were called to Zanesville Tuesday afternoon, when the first call for troops for active service in the pending war with Germany was made.

Among the men to report were L. A. Gutridge, employed as pressman at the Advocate Printing company, John H. Urban, a fireman for the B. and O. railroad company and Woodard Painter, employed at the Licking Creamery company. Urban is a sergeant in Company A, and Gutridge is a member of the same company, both men left with troops from Zanesville, at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, presumably to be located on guard duty “somewhere in Ohio.” Painter reported that only 30 men from each company were to be used he was relieved from duty for the present.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, March 28.—Adjutant General Wood today issued a call for another regiment of infantry for the Ohio National Guard at once. It is hoped to recruit the new regiment in eastern Ohio.

“Here is a splendid opportunity for those eastern Ohio counties which have no National Guard companies to show their patriotism,” declared Adjutant General Wood in discussing the call for the additional regiment.

“I do not see,” he continued, “why Coshocton, Guernsey, Belmont, Monroe, Tuscarawas, Holmes, Jefferson, Harrison and Columbiana counties, which have no troops should not give the men for such a regiment.”

At present there are eight regiments and one battalion (negro) of infantry in Ohio. A new regiment probably would be known as the Ninth infantry.

“Somewhere in Ohio,” was the only information available today as to the disposition of Ohio troops called out late yesterday by Governor Cox for use in guarding strategic points.

Adjutant General Wood was in Chicago conferring with Major General Thomas H. Barry, in command of the Central division of the United States army of which Ohio is a part. The adjutant general expected to personally inform the federal officer of the condition of the Ohio troops, of what assistance the state can be relied upon to give and how troops could be used to an advantage in guarding property in this state.

Company C infantry, Fourth regiment at London, and a detachment of the sanitary troops of the Fourth regiment at Delaware were called out today by the adjutant general's office.

Colonel B. W. Hough, in charge of the Fourth regiment, was ill at his home here today and unable to be on duty. Major General Florence of Circleville was in command of the Fourth.

Addressing the Ohio Sanitary troops returned today from the Mexican border at a reception held for them at the state, Governor Cox said the European conflict was a struggle for democracy, “and if we become a part of this great conflict, I want to see Old Glory and the Ohio boys standing in the trenches of France fighting for the world-wide democracy.”

Ohio Guardsmen called into the service of the state to guard public buildings and railroad property will receive $2 a day as long as they are in the service of the state. When in the federal service on the Mexican border they received only 50 cents a day.

MANCHURIA IS SAFELY DOCKED IN ENGLISH PORT

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, March 28.—The American line steamer Manchuria has arrived at an English port after a voyage across the Atlantic, it was announced by P. S. Franklin, head of the International Mercantile marine, owners of the vessel.

The Manchuria left an American port about twenty-four hours before the sailing of the American line passenger steamship St. Louis. Among the Manchuria's crew of 159 men were 90 American citizens, all native born except three. The vessel carried no passengers.

The British passenger steamship Adriatic of the White Star line, which left the United States on the same day on which the St. Louis departed, also has arrived safely at an English port. Among the Adriatic's 65 passengers were six American citizens, members of a Harvard surgical unit on their way to France.

The arrival at an Atlantic port of the White Star freighter Cretic from an European port is announced today.

Clothes Catch From Hot Plate; Woman May Be Fatally Burned

Mrs. Olin K. Criswell, of 425 East Main street, was probably fatally burned this morning about 10 o'clock when her clothing caught fire from a hot plate in the kitchen. Mrs. Criswell was alone at the time and ran from the house out onto the sidewalk. Neighbors and people passing in machines hastened to her assistance and succeeded in smothering the flames but not before all her clothing was nearly burned from her body. The unfortunate young woman who is the daughter of Pennsylvania ticket agent Joseph L. Worth was placed in a covered auto truck and taken at once to the city hospital, time being thus saved in awaiting for an ambulance to reach the scene. Dr. H. J. Davis attended her. It was found that her back and neck were badly burned as well as one of her arms. Everything possible was done for her comfort. This afternoon she is reported to be in a critical condition.

be inaugurated are being scanned. Attention is particularly attracted to the Austro-Italian front. An attack of the heaviest character here has been hinted at and the probability of its taking place is being widely discussed in Rome. Some consideration in this connection is also being given points on the Franco-Belgian front outside the zone of that great retreat. The Germans for instance, are displaying notable activity in the Champagne region and today Berlin reports capture of French trenches south of Reims in this district.

The British and French troops have made additional important gains against the Germans on the line running from Arras to Soissons. On the British center at several points Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig's men have pushed forward appreciably nearer the St. Quentin-Cambria road, occupying the villages of Longavesnes, Liermont and Equancourt, and in addition have recaptured from the Germans a position north of Beaumont-Lez-Cambrai, which the Germans took from them in an attack Monday night.

The gains of the French were made in the region to the south of La Fere, where they drove the Germans completely out of the lower forest of Coucy and also captured the villages of Petit Barisis, Verneuil and Coucy La Ville, bringing the French line in this region to the western outskirts of the forest of St. Gobain and the upper forest of Coucy. In the Soissons sector further progress was made north of Neuville-Sur-Margival and northeast of Leulilly.

The German war office admits the capture by the British of the town of Roisel, about 11 miles northwest of St. Quentin, and the falling back of the German forces before the French at several points in the forest region south of La Fere, in order to avoid being outflanked.

Violent artillery fighting in the region of Verdun and at various points in Belgium, notably near Dixmude, Steenstraete and Het Sas, has been in progress.

GERMAN PLOTTERS MAY ASK TO BE INTERNED

San Francisco, March 28.—Federal authorities said today it was probable that Lieutenant Wilhelm von Brincken, German consular attaché, who was convicted several weeks ago, together with Franz Bopp, former German consul-general at here and others, of violations of American neutrality would seek voluntary internment.

minute, nor has it been decided even after yesterday's cabinet meeting, just what recommendations he will include in it.

Congressional leaders are counting on having to deal with nothing but measures relating to the international crisis during the special session. Spokesmen for temperance and prohibition organizations have declared their intention of not pressing for action any anti-liquor legislation, and although the federal women suffrage amendment will be introduced there appears to be little hope for it.

One of the problems which will confront the war department in case a war army is called out will be the expansion of its civil establishments to meet the enormous increase in clerical work. Already the department's bureaus are strained to the limit of present personnel and its quarters in the big state, war and navy building are congested.

It is expected that for immediate purposes, three shifts of clerks will be put on and the bureaus kept open day and night. Another suggestion is that the new interior department building, close to the war department and now nearing completion be taken over temporarily at least. None of these steps can be taken, however, until congress has acted and the size of the army to be raised has been fixed.

CHICAGO NOT READY TO EAT HORSE MEAT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, March 28.—Horse meat is not wanted in Chicago, according to Alderman William O. Nance, chairman of the council committee on health, who has received a letter from the owner of a northwest side market, asking what steps he should take to obtain a license to sell horse flesh as food.

“No horse meat yet awhile for Chicago,” said the alderman. “I know it is sold in some parts of Europe, but until I am shown it is necessary or advisable, I shall oppose the sale of this commodity in Chicago.”

The market owner enclosed a newspaper clipping, stating that horse meat is being sold in New York City.

BROTHERHOOD HEADS WARMLY CRITICIZED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, March 28.—Railroad brotherhood officials were criticized here by the Newlands joint committee by Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Southern Pacific board. In renewing the recent strike controversy, he said the brotherhood took an “arrogant attitude” and evidenced “absolute contempt of the public” of the president, congress and the supreme court.

Anyone with contempt for the law and the courts and his fellow citizens, said Mr. Kruttschnitt, “should be taught respect by some regulatory authority. We cannot get good service from men who have no respect for the laws.”

Compulsory investigation of railroad labor disputes, but not compulsory arbitration was advocated by Mr. Kruttschnitt, who said the “involuntary servitude of brotherhood members is vastly greater to the union than to the railroad.”

Feeling the Moon's Pulse.

That the moon is not the rigid solid body that has been believed, but that it is subject to periodic pulsations, is the discovery, recently set forth by the astronomer T. P. Curtis in the French Academy of Sciences. It would be impossible to describe here the elaborate method by which he ascertained this fact. Suffice it to say that his discovery is based upon a study of photographs of the moon taken at the Paris observatory from 1914 to 1915.

APPEAL COMES FROM NEW ALBANY STORM VICTIMS

The Chamber of Commerce this morning received the following telegram from E. V. Knight, treasurer of the Citizens Relief committee of New Albany, Indiana, which was recently devastated by storm:

“Our city is helpless in the face of a tremendous disaster. A tornado killed 37 and wounded several hundred. It made 2,500 homeless. It caused $1,000,000 damage to homes and factories. Every business man is trying to restore normal conditions but the burden is too great for this community alone. In the face of this terrible disaster, we have no hesitation in urging the consideration of the people of Newark for financial help in raising $250,000 needed by the Red Cross society to carry on relief work. Any sum that you may care to send will be thankfully received.”

The Chamber of Commerce will be pleased to receive any contributions of relief and forward them to the proper authorities at New Albany or they may be forwarded to Treasurer Knight direct.

In Close and Clever Ankle Fit Lies the Secret of True Shoe Beauty

Regardless of color, shape and price, people unconsciously judge your shoes in this way—Do they fit snugly all the way around the ankle?

Walk-Over Shoes for women are made with a care that is truly unusual.

The most unusual point comes the perfecting of lasts and patterns. To try out all the new lasts and patterns, sample shoes are made over and over again and tried on the model foot repeatedly. This process is repeated until the fit—especially the ankle fit—is absolutely flawless.

You would expect shoes made with such care to fit perfectly. Walk-Over Shoes for women do cling on the ankle as smoothly as snug-fitting gloves on the hand.

DR. CONWELL PLEASES H. S. COURSE PATRONS

The concluding and one of the best numbers on the High school lecture course was given by the noted Dr. Russell H. Conwell on his famed lecture, “Acres of Diamonds,” at the High school auditorium Tuesday evening.

Dr. Conwell lectures from a wealth of experience, he served through the civil war, edited a newspaper and acted as foreign correspondent encircling the globe, lectured through England and was later pastor of the Grace Baptist church of Philadelphia.

His lecture, “Acres of Diamonds,” which has been delivered over 5,300 times deals with the success of man, and is an inspiration to all who hear it. The lecture was most heartily received and proved one of the best numbers of the varied and excellent course offered by the school this year.

SERVICE WILL BE SHORT.

Columbus, March 28.—Adjutant General Wood this afternoon wired Governor Cox from Chicago, where he is in conference with Major General Thomas H. Barry, commander of the central department of the United States army, that federal troops will be sent to Ohio to relieve the Ohio National Guard units which were called out by the governor late yesterday. The third and sixth Ohio regiments are referred to, it is believed.

WILL CONTINUE WAR.

Petrograd, March 27, via London, March 28.—A group of social democrats has put out a declaration which as far as can be determined fairly represents the attitude of the majority toward the government. Declaration favors a vigorous prosecution of the war, leaving the demands of the social democracy in abeyance until the country is safe from the danger of a return of the monarchy.

BE PATRIOTIC DISPLAY FLAG AND DO IT NOW

The Rotary club last night adopted a resolution requesting the mayor of Newark to issue a proclamation that business men and the public generally display the American flag as is being done in other cities during the present international crisis.

The civic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce has joined in the appeal and when Mayor R. C. Bigbee consented to issue such a public proclamation, attaches of the Chamber began telephoning the various business men to at once display the flag on their stores and various buildings. There was an immediate response and it is expected that within the next twenty-four hours the whole city will be participating.

An appeal is being made by the Chamber of Commerce to every member to not only display the flag on his business place or home but to wear miniature flag on his coat lapel. Every member is asked to spread the movement to his family, his neighbors and friends so that strangers visiting us will know that Newark is loyal and willing to express that loyalty. Other patriotic and civic bodies are asked to join the movement.

GERMAN CRITIC IS AGAINST DRIVE ON RUSSIAN LINE NOW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, March 27, via London, March 28.—The idea of a great offensive against Russia in order to take advantage of her supposed demoralization is not regarded with favor by Major Morant, the widely known military expert of the Tageblatt. Major Morant writes:

"The foreground of interest still lies in the situation on the western front. From a purely military standpoint I must say that for the time being no change need be expected. Political considerations, which our military authorities must take into account, probably will be influenced by events in Russia. This must be emphasized because many politicians already see the sun of peace rising in the east and a peace at that which we are to win through operations of force."

"I would consider it wiser to give the conflict between the Russian army and the provisional government more chance to develop. This weakening of our enemy can continue without our help and yet without precluding our attack at the moment when an inclination is shown to give up resistance."

WILL DEDICATE TABERNACLE ON THURSDAY, APR. 6

The program for the dedication was left in the hands of the ministerial association and this organization will meet at the First M. E. church on Thursday noon to arrange this program.

The chairman of the building committee, Fred C. Evans, reported that the tabernacle would be completed in three more days of good weather. The next meeting of the commission will be held next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the usual place.

POWDER SCANDAL IN BRITAIN GETS AIRING IN LONDON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, March 28.—When the government inquiry into the Malakite, or white powder syndicate, was resumed today Sir Theodore Cook and other former backers of Joseph C. Blanche, withdrew from the case. This step left Blanche alone in his effort to prove the charges that the British military authorities had failed to make use of his explosive and had prevented him from introducing it in France.

In view of the statements in behalf of the government on Monday that the white powder invented by Blanche was dangerous and useless, Sir Theodore, who was chairman of the syndicate, and his associates apologized to the government and all others concerned, stating that owing to lack of information they had been induced to take a position which the facts revealed by the government showed was entirely wrong. They said they would be glad to give the government every assistance in their power in the further procedure.

RAIDS ON COAST

Not Enough Guns In World to Fortify Shores.

RECENT ENGLISH ATTACKS.

Captain Sims Tells Congress Committee British Navy Must Not Scatter. Fortifications at Panama Canal Simply an Aid to Fleet, Foot Loose For Limited Time.

Washington.—When a light squadron of German warships slipped through the British patrol and bombarded the Kentish coast it puzzled many observers, including some members of the house committee on naval affairs, that vessels from a blockaded navy can make these raids. Testifying recently before the house committee, Captain William S. Sims said:

"There is no possibility of disposing of the British fleet, even if it were four times as great, so as to prevent a raiding force attacking an unprotected part of the coast for half an hour and then running away again. If the Germans had nothing but three battle cruisers they would be able to carry out such raids. It would be possible to dispose of the British fleet around the coast so that it would be extremely dangerous to do so, but as the British fleet must be kept concentrated for battle in case the German fleet does come out, such a course would be suicidal.

"Suppose the vessels of the British fleet were stationed so many miles apart around the coast, it would be easy for a force only half as great to come out and destroy them one at a time, because they would be at such a considerable distance apart that they could not support each other."

"As to why the British fleet has not bombarded the unfortified coast of Germany, I do not think that the government of Great Britain will consent to bombarding practically defenseless towns. To make attacks with the fleet against Heligoland or other fortified places is impracticable. No ships can come within the range of land defenses, because they could not do any damage to the shore guns and the shore guns would sink the ships."

"There are no fortifications that you could put there that would protect the Panama canal," said Captain Sims. "They simply are an aid to the fleet, and they leave our fleet foot loose for a certain limited time. The canal is safe for a certain length of time against attacks, because it could only be operated against by landing outside of the area of fortifications and attacked by land. In order to do that they would have to bring over an expedition and protect that expedition while it landed. They could not and would not do that if we had a superior force on the sea."

DISPLAY THE FLAG.

Mayor Bigbee today issued a proclamation calling upon the people of this community to display the American flag on business places, homes and coat parlors as evidence that Newark is nursing in her allegiance to the United States of America—the home of the free.

At this hour when America is confronted with a situation that seems certain to bring us into the world conflict it is important that patriotism should be manifest and every loyal American citizen will cheerfully comply with the timely suggestion of the mayor.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION

Calling out units of the Ohio National Guard as a precautionary measure against possible efforts to cripple commerce or destroy property was accompanied by Governor Cox's proclamation urging the people of Ohio to guard carefully their resources and to practice intensive farming in preparation for any eventualities.

The governor declares that every available acre should be used for food production and he urges the people of this state to give close attention to the cultivation of the soil this spring. While the governor's proclamation was printed in full in yesterday's Advocate, we repeat this paragraph: "We are mobilizing our men, conserving our finance, protecting our public works and resorting to the means of defense which experience suggests, but there seems to be no thought as to the importance of intensifying the energies of the soil. In our vast domain of fertile fields there will be thousands of waste acres, notwithstanding the prices in prospect should give spur to thrift, and an understanding of the importance of the element of food should stir our patriotic endeavor. A movement should be inaugurated at once in every community, rural and city, in order that the facilities which nature has given us may be availed of to the utmost."

Governor Cox' proclamation is timely. If the people will follow his wise suggestion, the high cost of living will be given a jolt, the value of thrift will be demonstrated.

Back yards and vacant lots should be cultivated this year as never before. Those who can not render defense service can nevertheless be of real service by cultivating the soil.

Already the movement for spring gardening is under way here. The boys and girls of the Newark public schools under competent direction are to be taught the principles of agriculture and they are to be taught in a practical way and given opportunity to plant and cultivate their

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Sun on the meridian of Washington 5 minutes 12 seconds after 12. Venus and Mars rise with the sun; Jupiter sets in the evening, Saturn in the early morning hours.

INTERNATIONALISTS.

Much comment has been caused by the unusual case of six Baltimore boys who were suspended from school because they declined to salute the flag, stating that they were "internationalists." Incidents like these suggest that there is a growing element in this country that frankly does not consider itself American, but holds itself only to some dreamy world wide organization.

In the final world state, it is conceivable that delegates may be sent to some Central Congress at London, New York, or Tokyo, who may govern the whole world. But that is many thousand of years distant at present outlook.

The world makes the largest progress where political and national diversions exist. In that way every section of the world gets a government best suited to its own temperament and inheritance. The people of Central Africa, for instance, would not prosper under the democratic institutions prevailing with us. They would not know how to use the tools of democracy. Similarly our people would not advance if placed under an autocratic rule of kings and emperors.

Nationalism permits every people to choose the form of government that best suits them. Russia's experience the last few days proves that where a type of government is not best adapted to a people, it will finally be overturned. No matter how strongly it may be entrenched in tradition, and military power, it can not survive popular disapproval indefinitely.

There is nothing to be gained by surrendering national lines in the present age. The preaching of this visionary idea merely serves to weaken the tie of obligation to one's own country, and it produces no other loyalty to take its place. "Internationalists" would better retire to the jungles of Africa, where national feeling is not strongly developed, and where each little community and individual can execute its own savage will.

There are many people who believe that if we are very humble toward Germany, she will give our sailors an hour or two longer to prepare their minds for getting drowned.

The long distance running record, originally held by the Austrians, then captured from them by the Roumanians, seems now to be safely in the hands of the Turks.

"HOW WILL THE WAR AFFECT ME?"

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.)

No longer is it a question of war; that we shall have it is an accepted fact. The question of each individual now is, how will the war affect me? The people await the appearance of the President before the extraordinary session of Congress for their answer. They know two ways are open for the United States: one the way of the powerful financial and industrial cities, the other the way of active participation by means of sea and land forces in the war. The former course seems to have been favored by the many, so far as it is possible to interpret opinion, until very recently; the latter is the one the country has lately begun preparing itself to accept from the government. The former was a little the more comfortable for some people to think about; a sort of war de luxe, the trenches with all the comforts of home. The latter means, as everybody knows, the real thing. Each man faces the issue: shall I enlist? What can I do to serve my country best?

There are earnest people who shrink from the idea of an alliance entailing an expedition to France because it means that we relinquish our traditional position of isolation. Another equally earnest body looks upon such an alliance as the basis for a future league to enforce peace and recent democratic gains in Russia serve to strengthen this common opinion. Still another group is hesitating at abandoning America's character of isolation. This perpetual warning indeed gradually hypnotizes the human consciousness into a fear of action almost of any sort. A child who is constantly being warned against danger must necessarily grow into a man who sees danger everywhere. The effect of this on character is, of course, expressed in the terms of individual character. The man afraid of disease generally superinduces disease, until he produces some manifestation of it in his person; the man who is afraid of accident; and so on ad infinitum. These are, obviously, more or less extreme cases, but in every mentality, repudiate the suggestion, some expression of fear finds a lodging. —Christian Science Monitor.

Pointed Paragraphs

A TIME TO BE JUST.

(Columbus Dispatch.)
The allies have been beating in the country of a few cent, more, which was immediately spent in a new supply of goods and services.

The kind of business that is going to be done in the country, if something is not done to correct the conditions. The cause of the allies is the American cause, there is nothing in the condition of those two profits to show any gratification of the fact. We have not helped and, besides, as we interest is too high for so great a loan and the prices of commodities contain an unjust profit, we have actually put a handicap upon the nations that need our money and our supplies.

There is in this country no love for the men who unjustly thrive on other people's misfortunes. They are the vultures of big business and would as soon rob an American as anybody else. It is time for an expression with regard to these practices and also with regard to our national duty in the war. But words are not enough. Action must follow to check selfishness and promote treatment of the belligerents in accordance with the sentiments of the people. The first thing to do, if it were possible, would be to make those who have exacted unjust gains pay them back to those from whom they were exacted. No true American will shirk his share of helpfulness to the allies, however it may come. But it is unjust to permit the usurers and their ilk to get away with their swag.

Spirit of the Press

Appeal for Men.

No young American of "stuff and ambition" can read the above appeal from the head of the United States Navy without thrilling with a desire to join "the first line for national defense," and be one of the eight thousand patriots who are going to join the navy within the next two weeks and take our undermanned ships out of the harbors and basins where they are waiting for hands enough to move them! —Columbus Monitor.

"Steady, Uncle Sam."

Mr. Wilson is a very patient man, and no doubt realizes that there is a certain moral irresponsibility of desperation, and that this war in Europe is dragging toward its catastrophic last stages, and with the rod of revolution haunting some royal pillows, the end may be even higher than it looks. The word is, "Steady, Uncle Sam!" and take care never to be caught again in such a world situation, as unprepared for self-defense as a fat sheep when the wolves are out. —Milwaukee Sentinel.

Dead Issues.

Nothing now stands in the way of commercial treaty between the United States and Russia, remarks the new foreign minister, Prof. Milyukoff. The old treaty was abrogated by the United States Congress as a protest against the Russian persecution of Jews. A new treaty will be to the advantage of both the United States and Russia. —Buffalo Express.

The Kaiser.

If the German emperor would think himself more as the ruler of the German people and less as the dictator of the universe and a senior partner of God, it would be better for Germany and himself. —Manchester News.

Cash Aspects of War.

In these times war is largely a problem of money. The legions of Caesar had none of the ponderous and costly machinery such as is used by both the belligerents and the central powers. The Crusaders had no cannon, and the wars of the middle and even the later centuries were in the end resolved by taxation, by credit and by money. The curious feature of the situation is that every one of the European belligerents appears to have no difficulty in borrowing all the money it needs, not only from its own people, but from neutral nations. —Los Angeles Times.

"Fearing Even Safe Things."

Perhaps the phase of modern civilization fraught with most danger to the human race is that which has found expression in the apparently harmless combination of the two words, "Safety First." As the world comes to realize the mental causes which operate to produce a phenomenon, it will begin to see the danger of perpetually warning mankind of danger. This perpetual warning indeed gradually hypnotizes the human consciousness into a fear of action almost of any sort. A child who is constantly being warned against danger must necessarily grow into a man who sees danger everywhere. The effect of this on character is, of course, expressed in the terms of individual character. The man afraid of disease generally superinduces disease, until he produces some manifestation of it in his person; the man who is afraid of accident; and so on ad infinitum. These are, obviously, more or less extreme cases, but in every mentality, repudiate the suggestion, some expression of fear finds a lodging. —Christian Science Monitor.

The kind of business that is going to be done in the country, if something is not done to correct the conditions. The cause of the allies is the American cause, there is nothing in the condition of those two profits to show any gratification of the fact. We have not helped and, besides, as we interest is too high for so great a loan and the prices of commodities contain an unjust profit, we have actually put a handicap upon the nations that need our money and our supplies.

Every One Should Co-operate In the Paint Up Campaign

THE market value of property is greatly enhanced by its attractive appearance. Every community where the homes are neatly kept up, the houses and fences painted and the grounds in spick and span condition is its own best advertisement.

Home seekers and investors are naturally drawn toward it. They recognize that such a community is progressive and that it is actuated by enlightened modern ideas on the value of sanitation, cleanliness and beauty in the home surroundings. They recognize it as an ideal place in which to bring up a family because the environments are of the best. There is no going backward in a community of that kind. Property will always command a premium there.

From every point of view—moral, sanitary, economic and artistic—the clean up-keep up campaign deserves the hearty support and co-operation of every citizen throughout the land.

Fewer Eggs are required with ROYAL BAKING POWDER

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced with excellent results by using an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, for each egg omitted. The following recipe is a practical example:

Chocolate Sponge Roll

1/4 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
2 squares melted chocolate

1/2 tablespoons melted shortening
1/4 cup hot water
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

The old method called for 4 eggs and no baking powder

DIRECTIONS—Sift flour, baking powder and salt together three times. Beat whole eggs. Add slowly sugar, then boiling water slowly; add next vanilla, melted chocolate and melted shortening, without beating. Sift in dry ingredients, and fold in as lightly as possible. Pour into large baking pan lined with oiled paper, and bake in slow oven twenty minutes. When done, turn out on a damp, hot cloth, spread with white icing and roll.

Boolett of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients, mailed free.

YOUR BEDROOM.

New Ways of Freshening Up the Same Old Spot.

No matter how attractively one's bedroom may be furnished one cannot help growing tired of one's surroundings. Then, too, as the season changes from extreme cold to extreme warm weather it is advisable to change the furnishings of the bedroom. For many years cretonne and sprigged materials have been chosen for the summer hangings and coverings. According to predictions, plain chambray will be sold extensively next summer. An example displayed in an artistic shop showed the bed cover, bolster sham, rest pillow, covers for dressing table and chiffonier and hangings for the window of blue chambray, combined with white. The bed cover, or spread, being the largest piece, showed more white than any of the other pieces. In fact, the spread was of white sheeting, fringed along all its edges. On the center was applied a square of blue chambray, which was embroidered in white. A noticeable point about the blue square was that the hem was turned up on the right side and held down with white tape, which looked very much like white seam binding. If one desires to make the set a little more elaborate hand crocheted lace or imitation cluny might be used to edge the various articles.

Old rose, pink green or yellow chambray would be equally as effective as the blue. If you will begin now to make a set you will have plenty of time to do the work, and the result will be better than if it is done in a hurry. Think of the joy you will experience if you will be able to produce a complete set for your bedroom or your guest room when spring housecleaning is over and the winter draperies are put away.

Pockets Are a Feature.

In fact, principally in the pockets lies the variety of the sport suits and separate sport skirts. There are crescent pockets which start from the waistline down. There are also patch pockets of any shape your fancy can imagine and of considerable size, enough always to be conspicuously decorative, or if you can invent a new pocket for a sport suit so much the better. Otherwise the skirts seem to be made with two or three seams and of striped, coin spotted or plain goods. Plain short coats of rajah or tussore have their collars and coat fronts faced with a contrasting color, as soldier blue coat faced with ivory white.

Waistcoats of Every Sort.

Waistcoats of all kinds, shapes and materials are being worn. Two very attractive ones are of Chinese embroidery, one of black satin having a wide edging of the embroidery. Imitation caracul is worn, too, but the effect of this is rather heavy. On the whole, the most effective waistcoats are those of the embroidery.

The Fichu is Back.

The fichu style in neckwear has been revived and shows a novelty made of black tulle edged with fur. This piece of neckwear takes the form of a deep, velvet collar in the back with fichu effect in front, crossing over at waistline and lying on side front, forming long sash ends.

The man with one single idea isn't so bad if the idea is big enough.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, March 28.—The meeting of the A. F. F. W. yesterday was well attended although the luncheon assembled only twelve or fifteen of the workers. At the business session, detailed reports from the various heads of committees were submitted, showing a surprising amount of work accomplished during the six months. The shipments, valued at $500, have gone out containing such articles as 351 comfort pillows, 140 comfort bags; 44 packages large compresses; 775 small compresses; 417 bandages, 33 slings, 167 sponges, 185 handkerchiefs, 24 suits pajamas, 14 pairs blankets, 24 pairs booties, 25 towels, children's garments, rubber goods, 24 tooth brushes, 4 rolls absorbent cotton, 20 cakes Ivory soap, 800 paper napkins, 1 American flag, 1 auto harp, and other supplies in smaller amounts. The Paris letter was read by the president, and Mrs. W. E. Clemons read James Whitcomb Riley's "Old Glory," and the little legend of the forming of the flag. Mrs. Odebrecht took charge of her new office, the "Way and Means committee. A new spirit of service, almost of seriousness, pervaded the meeting, and when the company in disbanded sang "America," there were not many dry eyes among them.

President and Mrs. Clark W. Chamberlain delightfully entertained at dinner Tuesday evening. March 27 at the president's house on College hill, honoring the members of the senior class. At beautifully decorated tables spread in the spacious rooms, covers were laid for eighty-eight, those present besides the class being Dr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, Miss Anna Peckham and her house guests, Miss Margaret Judson and Miss Elizabeth Judson of New York. Mrs. Clarence Eddy of Zanesville, with her two children, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. N. Harford in South Mulberry street, for a few days.

The Fortnightly club enjoyed an extra meeting and guest night. Tuesday evening, March 27, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Swartz in East College street, and a most delightful social evening resulted. Fancy hats of all descriptions were worn by the ladies and much merriment was occasioned by the specimens of military gear. Each member was accompanied by a guest and the hospitable old mansion was well filled with merry-makers. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and assistants.

Mrs. Frank Ray and her daughter, Miss Helen Ray, were among those who attended the Galli-Gurci concert in Columbus last evening.

Prof. Frank Ray, who has been in Russia since last fall, has been heard from since the revolution and is reported well.

Mrs. Ray has submitted her papers to qualify for Red Cross nurse. Dr. G. F. McKibben and his daughter, Miss Ruth McKibben, delightfully entertained at dinner last evening at their home in West Elm street. Covers were laid for the the hosts, Prof. and Mrs. August Odebrecht and Miss Elizabeth Morris. College closes today for the spring vacation and all the students who do not live too far distant will depart for their homes tomorrow. The fraternity houses in conformity with custom, will be hospitably open this evening to the young ladies of Shepardson College.

The Denison Glee club, one of the most successful musical aggregations on the road, will start tomorrow on its eastern concert tour. It expects to appear in Coshocton, East Liverpool, Pittsburgh, Cambridge, Huntington, W. Va., Ironton, Hillsboro and Dayton. Everywhere the boys have met with enthusiastic welcome and appreciation. John W. Hundley is leader, H. C. Chandler, manager, and Prof. R. W. Soule, coach. The soloists are R. W. Soule, Theodorick Neal, and Carl Crilly. The home concert will be given on April 13. Save the date. It is said that the original sketch, "The Belgian Refugee," from the pen of Miss Lily Belle Seaton, is alone worth the price of admission.

Nobody ever left a umbrella hanging on a sody water bar. The hardest thing is finding a good enough go-cart for th' first baby.

Read Classified Ads Tonight.

Our Boys and Girls

The bathing of the baby each morning should be a systematic process never done hastily or carelessly. There should be a thermometer for the room and one for the bath itself. The room thermometer should register from 75 to 80 degrees F. For the first eight weeks of the baby's life, the bath thermometer should show that the water is 100 degrees F. From two months to six, the temperature should be 98 degrees F. From six months to twenty-four it should register from 85 to 90 degrees F.

A baby should not be laid into the tub and hastily sponged off. The operation starts with baby laid comfortably on a warm blanket, spread on mother's knee. First the face and hands are washed with clean gauze and dried. Next, the eyes, nose, ears, and genitals are washed with a piece of absorbent cotton, wet with solution of boric acid and water, a teaspoonful of the acid to a pint of water, warm. This absorbent cotton is then burned or thrown away, never used again.

Now baby is thoroughly soaped and laid in the tub, its head firmly supported so that the water does not run into the eyes or ears. A fresh piece of absorbent cotton is used to rinse off the soap, the baby is lifted from the water, dried quickly with an old soft towel and powdered. The drying should be done by patting, not by hard rubbing, and the creases be dried, before the talcum is applied.

Milady's Boudoir

Age and Hands. Sometimes we are obliged to wonder where all the "old ladies" are living, in this world of Tango. War and Woman's Suffrage. We can no longer find the old lady with the bonnet and shawl in the big cities, and even in the smaller town she is quite a rarity.

If women only realized it, they would find that there is more necessity for fussing and caring for one's grooming when one is fading than when possessed of radiant youth.

The hands need attention as we climb the years. Neglected hands frequently show evidence of a woman's age before the face. To conceal the age lines at the wrist long cuffs and soft lace ruffles should be worn that come well down toward the knuckles.

The nails should receive care, especially if one has to do housework. Both household tasks and age make the nails brittle. But if one is thoughtful about the nightly rub of cold cream, and the daily use of good soap, the nails will remain young even after their day of youth has sped.

Kreamol Shampoo is made especially for washing the hair and cleaning the scalp. Get a bottle today at Evans' Drug Store, Newark, and Ullman's Drug Store, Granville, Ohio. 2-14-mwt-11

NOTICE TO SICK WOMEN

Positive Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Bridgeton, N.J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sleep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt a change for the better. I took it until I was in good healthy condition. I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with such good results."—Mrs. MILFORD T. CUMMINGS, 322 Harmony St., Penn's Grove, N. J.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence of the excellence of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the distressing ills of women such as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, backache, painful periods, nervousness and kindred ailments.

HOW GOOD THAT MUSTEROLE FEELS!

It Gets to That Sore Spot Like Magic

A-ah! That's delicious relief for those sore muscles, those stiff joints, that lame back.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard and other home simples.

It does the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, minus the plaster and minus the blister!

You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and usually the pain is gone.

No muss, no bother. Just comforting, soothing relief—first a gentle glow, then a delightful sense of coolness. And best of all, no blisters like the old-fashioned mustard plaster used to make.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

There are unusual features in the situation which deserve attention. The high wages paid in the town industries have been drawing labor from the farms. The men come to the towns for winter work, and last spring they did not go back to the country, and they are not likely to go back this spring, particularly if industry receives a new stimulus from our entrance into the war. The farmer's outlay for seed and all expenses are higher, and, while high prices for products are usually expected to stimulate larger production, they may not do so this year.

In ordinary times we can draw on other countries to make up for domestic shortage. We have frequently imported potatoes from Europe, and the effects of not being able to do so now are apparent. It is just as important under present conditions to have reserves of food as reserves of cartridges. When so much is dependent upon a good crop it is the part of prudence for the entire community to concern itself about the situation from the beginning of the season. There are certain common vegetables which make up a large part of the food supply, such as potatoes, beans, onions, etc., which do well in all parts of the country and can be grown in a small way without machinery, whose production this year in simple quantities should be assured beyond chance or doubt. This garden production can be greatly increased if a popular interest is awakened and systematic efforts are made to place idle town lots and nearby tracts at the disposal of people who are willing to work them.

FOOD PROBLEMS DANGEROUS ONES

Largest Possible Acreage Must Be Planted.

RESERVE GRAIN EXHAUSTED

High Wages Paid in Manufacturing Centers Lure the Men From the Farms—War Prevents Immigration, and Few Aliens Come to America From Their Native Lands.

At the moment no other factor in the national situation is of greater importance than intelligent, precautionary preparations to secure the largest possible acreage of land under cultivation, and particularly in the food crops, during the coming season. Whether we are to have war or peace, the population must be fed, and if unfortunately weather conditions should be unfavorable and the yield no better than last year's, the food situation next winter will be so much worse than it is now that we may well take alarm while there is yet time to provide against the possibility, says a statement by a large national bank of New York.

The present crop year began with a large carry-over of all the grains, but it will end without reserves, and the whole world will be dependent upon the crops of 1917. The beginning is not good. The Argentine wheat crop, now harvested, is so nearly a failure that there will be little for export, and the corn crop will be not much better. The Australian wheat crop, which, like that of Argentina, is harvested in the months of our winter, is estimated at 139,892,000 bushels against 187,120,000 last year, but fortunately there is a carry-over estimated at 80,000,000 bushels.

A semi-official report puts the condition of French winter wheat at 65 per cent against 74 last year and states that, owing to lack of fertilizer and want of proper preparation of the soil, the yield will be below normal. The crop of Holland is unpromising and of England backward. In the United States there has been a shortage of moisture in the principal winter wheat states.

The plant is not known to be injured, and there is yet time for sufficient moisture to come, but if it was under a snow covering the outcome would be better assured. A freeze has cut off the early vegetable crop in the southern states, which would have soon relieved the present scarcity.

Unusual Conditions.

There are unusual features in the situation which deserve attention. The high wages paid in the town industries have been drawing labor from the farms. The men come to the towns for winter work, and last spring they did not go back to the country, and they are not likely to go back this spring, particularly if industry receives a new stimulus from our entrance into the war. The farmer's outlay for seed and all expenses are higher, and, while high prices for products are usually expected to stimulate larger production, they may not do so this year.

REGENT STRONG AGAINST PRO-GERMAN INFLUENCES

Grand Duke Michael Has Been at Odds With His Brother, the Czar, For Years.

Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, the new regent of Russia, is the younger and only brother of Emperor Nicholas, with whom he has been at odds for many years. Until the birth of Grand Duke Alexis Nicholaevitch, son of Emperor Nicholas, in 1904, he was the first in succession to the Russian throne.

Grand Duke Michael is the favorite son of the Dowager Empress Marie Feodorovna, sister of the Dowager Queen Alexandra of Great Britain. He also has been strongly opposed to the German influence in the Russian imperial family.

Banished from Russia by his brother early in 1913 because of his morganatic marriage, Grand Duke Michael spent some time in exile in England. He returned to Russia late in August, 1914, and was reported to have taken a command in the army. Since then there have been no reports of his whereabouts and activities.

Being born on Nov. 22, 1878, he is ten years younger than the emperor. His education was wholly military, and he has held many honorary commands in the army.

As the next to succession to the Russian throne prior to 1904 and afterward, Grand Duke Michael often acted as the personal representative of Emperor Nicholas at royal funerals and marriages.

On Jan. 1, 1913, Grand Duke Michael was banished from Russia by Emperor Nicholas and relieved of the command of the Chevalier guards because of his marriage. A few days later an imperial manifesto relieved him from his position as regent designate.

A few months afterward it was reported in police circles in Russia that evidence had been discovered connecting Grand Duke Michael with a plot against the emperor and the Grand Duke Alexis.

At the beginning of the European war, however, he returned to Russia and apparently resumed his former dignities and position.

GIRL'S QUICK WIT SAVED LIFE OF A DYING WOMAN

Telephone Operator Summoned Aid When Mrs. Oster Collapsed—Located Her Son.

A woman called the Kedzie telephone exchange in Chicago. Her voice was so weak that she could not make the number she wanted heard. She was desperately ill, she managed to convey. The call was snapped up to Miss Margaret Carney, chief operator.

"Get 303" came in a gasp.

"What exchange?" asked Miss Carney. There was no answer. Then Miss Carney heard a thud. She located the address from which the call had come and summoned a neighbor.

"A Mrs. Amelia Oster has fainted at 20 South Kedzie avenue," she said. "Get a doctor to her."

"But how do you know?"

"Don't ask questions. Hop to it!" said Miss Carney.

Then she got after the mysterious 303 number. She called exchange after exchange and got that number. Finally she located the right exchange and Mrs. Oster's son. She told him his mother was sick.

"And I have the key to the house!" Mr. Oster exclaimed.

At that instant the neighbor cut in with a report that the door of Mrs. Oster's flat was locked. Miss Carney conveyed this to Mr. Oster.

"Tell her," said he, "to get a doctor, go up the fire escape and break a window."

These instructions were obeyed. When Mr. Oster reached home he found the physician by his mother's side.

"If there had been a few minutes more delay in getting help she would have died," said the physician.

On the next day Mr. Oster looked up Miss Carney.

"That's nothing!" she said.

FIGHTING U BOATS

Armed Merchantmen Have Them at a Disadvantage.

MANY HAVE BEEN BAGGED.

Guns Discharging Projectiles of Four or Six Pounds Have Proved Most Effective—Necessary Economy in Matter of Torpedoes Makes Undersea Craft Easy Target.

New York.—Although figures to show the number of submarines destroyed by the entente allies and the means used in their destruction are unavailable, owing to the rigid censorship on war activities, it was learned from an authoritative source that direct gun fire from the decks of warships and auxiliary vessels has been the most effective method employed thus far.

To combat the submarine menace the British government and her allies have adopted various plans to catch the undersea boats, although some of them have been abandoned as ineffective. A marine authority of unquestioned standing who is close to British shipping interests said when asked as to the effectiveness of arming ships:

"We have found that light guns, discharging projectiles of four and six pounds, in the hands of trained gunners have been by far the most effective weapon. I know personally that as many as two and three submarines have been bagged in one day in this way."

"A submarine commander looking through a periscope has a range of vision of about three miles, but he must get his target broadside on to have a reasonable chance of making a torpedo hit what it is aimed for, and, as torpedoes are a very expensive missile, he cannot afford to take many chances on a miss."

"A periscope above the water at a distance of 200 or 300 yards makes a fair mark for a gunner working from the deck of a ship thirty to forty feet above the surface of the sea. One shot hitting the mark is all that is needed, as the submarines are of light construction, easily penetrated, and a hole anywhere in their shell spells their doom."

"It is seldom that a torpedo is fired when a threatened ship can so maneuver as to show only her stern for a mark, and in most of the cases of this nature so far reported the submarines have come to the surface and resorted to gunfire from a deck gun. In this kind of fight a gun mounted on a steamship has a great advantage, for the platform offered by a submarine is an unsteady thing to fire from, and, despite the smaller target offered, the gunners on ships have the better of it."

LUMBER INDUSTRY ASLEEP.

Forester Says Substitute Materials Are Injuring the Business.

Kansas City, Mo.—W. B. Greeley, as assistant government forester, spoke of the lumber business as "an industry asleep" in a talk he made to the Southwestern Lumbermen's association at the Hotel Muehlebach. He said the trade had permitted other building materials to be substituted for wood without making any effort to find new uses for its products, according to the Kansas City Star.

"All social movements," he said, "affect the lumber business one way or another. The safety first movement has caused a demand for steel cars, fireproof buildings and a revision of the building codes in almost all cities to the detriment of the lumber business."

"The industry in a sense has been asleep. Substitute materials for lumber have been popularized by the manufacturers. Cement and steel have displaced wood, and the manufacturers of those articles have been delving constantly to find new uses for them. The lumber industry has made no effort to keep itself in the field by finding new uses for its products."

"8" ON FISH BACKS.

Dealer Reports a New Species Caught Off the California Coast.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Cliff Oliver, who markets the fish caught by the Japanese and Russian fishermen of the fishing village north of Santa Monica, claims that for this almost fishless season there has been a fair catch of halibut and sole. He said further:

"The strange part of this catch is that every one of the fish had a perfectly marked '8' on its back. I have handled hundreds of tons of these fish before and have never seen one that was marked in this way. Maybe it is some new species, but if so it is just like the others that have been caught around the bay, only the '8' has been added."

NINETY-ONE YEARS YOUNG.

Ohio Irishman Challenges Any Nonagenarian to Compete With Him.

Cleveland, O.—Uncle John Flannagan, ninety-one, of Defiance, O., arose at 5, tended to two teams of horses, did all the other chores around the house, did a day's work on the streets, went home, had supper, then walked downtown to a meeting of the D.H.s. and felt so good he issued a challenge for an endurance contest to all the other young men of advanced age in Ohio. Flannagan is proud of his vigor and confident of his physical strength, and in issuing his challenge he will place himself under a year's handicap in age and permit any ninety-year-old in Ohio to compete with him.

What To Do When Baby Has The Croup

Pennsylvania Mother Advises Use of "External" Treatment —VapoRub.

What to do when baby has the croup is a serious matter in every home. In the South the universal treatment is a good rub over the throat and chest with Vick's VapoRub Salve. The body warmth releases the ingredients in the form of vapors that, inhaled with each breath, quickly relieve the breathing. In addition, Vick's is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, relaxing the nervous tension and taking away the tightness and soreness.

Last winter Mrs. W. M. Rosenberger, 128 W. Broad St., Souderton, Pa., tried Vick's VapoRub for the first time, and writes—

"I have used Vick's VapoRub on my baby when he has had croup and colds in his throat and chest, and it has helped him wonderfully. I think it is the best thing of its kind I have ever used, and always want some in the house."

In addition to croup and colds, Vick's will be found useful in a hundred ways in the home as a salve—for burns, bruises, itchings, etc.—Three sizes 25c 50c or $1.00.

PIMPLES AND ERUPTIONS MEAN BAD BLOOD.

People who have impure or impoverished blood should be careful to take only a vegetable and temperance remedy such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and has been for nearly 50 years. Its ingredients printed on wrapper.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulations begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the eliminative organs.

MAN AND WIFE PRAISE TANLAC

LANCASTER WOMAN TELLS WHAT IT DID FOR THEM

SHE HAS GAINED 10 POUNDS

"I tried Tanlac because it helped my husband so much. I weighed only 100 pounds when I started. Now I weigh between 110 and 115 pounds. That means I have gained more than 10 pounds," said Mrs. William G. Hall, 721 North High street, Lancaster.

"I was nervous and had trouble with my stomach. Everything I ate disagreed with me, and I got so I didn't have any appetite. I was restless and couldn't sleep soundly. I would lie awake for hours, and when I finally did get to sleep I didn't rest good. In the mornings I was as tired as when I went to bed."

"I'd get up with a dull heavy headache sometimes, and when I would bend over and raise up my head would throb, and I'd get dizzy. I felt tired and worn out all the time, and just dragged around."

"My husband has been taking Tanlac for some time and it had helped him so much that I decided to try it. I feel fine now. My appetite has come back, and I eat almost anything I want without feeling bad afterwards."

"That restless feeling has left me, and I can sleep fine at night and get up feeling rested. My husband and I feel that it's our duty to tell everybody about the good Tanlac has done for us, for we know that it will help others who don't feel right."

If the United States becomes involved in war with Germany all the fighting that is done probably will be on the sea. The men who will direct the nation's first line of defense are shown above. Rear Admirals Mayo and Fletcher are the leading officers of the Atlantic fleet. Rear Admiral Winslow commands the Pacific fleet. Rear Admiral Winterhalter is in charge of the Asiatic fleet. SAINT LOUIS SEES U-BOAT EVIDENCE IN DRIFTWOOD

(Staff Correspondent of The Associated Press.)

London, Monday, March 26 — (Delayed by censor.) — The St. Louis, the first passenger vessel carrying the American flag to cross the Atlantic since Germany's declaration of unrestricted submarine destruction and the first armed American liner to enter a European port since the war began, arrived this morning. She carried a meagre number of passengers—33 all told—but her holds were filled to capacity with non-contraband freight.

The St. Louis came through without interruption. No submarines were sighted, nor were there at any time any indications that German undersea boats were after the big liner. If any of them saw the St. Louis they made no attempt to destroy her but kept carefully away from the guns of the American ship.

But signs of war were not lacking and the last three days aboard were anxious ones for passengers and crew alike. On Friday and again on Saturday after the St. Louis entered the forbidden zone, driftwood was passed—apparently parts of destroyed life boats. Yesterday a great field of oil was encountered. Vague rumors of the sinking of ships either ahead of or near the St. Louis increased the nervous tension.

For three days and nights the captain did not leave the bridge and never in her twenty-years of existence has the American ship been driven so furiously as she was from the time she passed into the zone until she was picked up by a pilot.

The journey was virtually without incident until the war zone was reached. Unusual precautions were taken as soon as the liner passed the Ambrose light but as she neared the danger point even the life rafts and collapsible boats were made ready for immediate use. Reflectors were strung up fore and aft and carbide lights were fixed along the rails for use in event the St. Louis became the victim of a torpedo or gun fire.

From the moment the St. Louis entered the danger zone until she reached comparatively safe waters the word in the engine room was to "give her all she can stand." For 48 hours the big vessel tore along at top speed. Meanwhile the passengers slept but little remaining in the reading room with life belts ready. Long before day break yesterday with the land still far below the horizon, most of the passengers were on deck, watching just as anxiously as the men on the bridge for signs of hostile submarines. Then suddenly out of the haze shot British patrols. Instructions were signalled. The St. Louis responded and continued her journey, while the submarine hunters bore away on their ceaseless vigil.

For two days after the St. Louis left port there was a howling gale, accompanied with fog and frequent snowsqualls, but the liner held steadily to the course which had been determined on.

Every precaution was taken. Even on the first night deck lights were shielded and cabin port holes shaded so that no glimmer of light should. Lookouts swept the horizon frequently with their glasses. The passengers were taken in hand and drilled daily in donning life belts and assembling quickly at their appointed places at the life boats. Crews for the life boats were assigned to their stations and instructed as to their duties. The lifeboats were provisioned long before the prohibited zone was reached and were swung out, partly lowered and lashed so that only a moment would be lost in dropping them into the water. Until Friday the trip was without incident other than the encountering of floating ice, including one huge iceberg. Two whales followed the ship for some distance. From the time the barred zone was entered until late last night, while the big steamer was making her way over the last few hundred miles of the journey, few passengers closed their eyes.

No ceremonies marked the arrival of the St. Louis. On the dock were the usual representatives of the American line, the port authorities, a small group of friends and relatives of passengers and a few newspaper men. As the liner was warped into her berth workmen raised a cheer for "The good old U. S. A."

City With Well Painted Houses Advertises Itself

"A CITY set upon a hill cannot be hidden." Neither can a house set in a well kept yard and surrounded with a painted fence. Both are conspicuous, both excite curiosity from afar. When the beholder draws nearer and becomes acquainted in detail conspicuousness grows into dignity and curiosity becomes admiration.

A clean city, a clean community, a clean neighborhood, a clean house—one possesses as much godly virtue as the other—each is to be sought by him who would dwell in an atmosphere of godliness.

The masses must be educated to a standard of cleanliness as they are educated to a standard of morality or to any other standard. Begin by teaching the children by precept and example; continue by encouraging the youth to observe the teachings of childhood. You will have attained success when you, teacher and preceptor, observe strictly yourself all precepts laid down.

A city, a community, a neighborhood, a home that is clean, that radiates the spirit of cleanliness even from its remotest crannies, needs no other advertisement than its own virtues.

The paint brush is one of the greatest cleansers.

Set the pace by painting up your house.

Hot Cross Bun in History.
The hot cross bun has both antiquity and tradition in its favor. Its history traces back not only to the time of Cecropia and Astarte, but also to the Jewish passover cakes and the cross marked water or eucharistic bread adopted by the early Christians and mentioned in St. Chrysostom's liturgy. The substitution of the cross mark for the horn mark on the surface of the bun by the Greeks is supposed to have been done for the purpose of dividing more easily the bun into four equal parts. Similar cross marked buns were found in the ruins of Herculaneum.

ORGANIZED EFFORT TO LAND RECRUITS FOR DEFENSE UNITS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Philadelphia, March 28.—Reports from all sections of the state today tell of organized efforts being made in many cities and boroughs to stimulate recruiting in the army, navy and marine corps and organization of local committees to arouse popular interest in defense measures. In other communities steps are being taken to form committees on relief and to care for families of men entering the national service.

In Philadelphia recruiting, especially for the naval coast defense reserve, is brisk. Applications for this branch of the service have been numerous but only about 200 have so far been accepted. Two regiments of the Pennsylvania National Guard, the First and the Third Infantry, were to enter the federal service today.

Fifty local physicians last night pledged themselves to join the army medical reserve corps and one hundred others, physically unable to qualify for medical field service, organized a physicians' meeting or corps the object of which will be to provide an ambulance service, members supplying their own automobiles. A messenger motor service, which all women motor owners or motor drivers are asked to join are being asked by the emergency aid committee. In the event of war it is expected to facilitate the transportation of food, supplies, doctors and nurses.

Leaders in the preparedness movement here expect that recruiting will be further stimulated by the patriotic demonstration to be held in Independence Square next Sunday. For the fifth time in the country's history Independence Hall was opened today as a recruiting station. Mayor Smith offered the use of the building to Commandant Russell of the Philadelphia navy yard last night and the commandant instructed Lieutenant Commander Payne to begin recruiting there at 10 o'clock this morning.

LET THIS CREAM CURE YOUR PIMPLES

For several weeks past Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store has done a big business in selling Hokara, the skin healer that has won so many friends in Newark.

It has been found to heal not only all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but also the eczema and skin rheumatism. There is yet to be found any form of wound or disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not help, and its action is so quick that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, T. J. Evans, druggist, will sell a liberal-sized jar for 35 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you can get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plain advertisement.

Beautiful hair is the result of proper care. When washing the hair or cleaning the scalp use Kreamol Shampoo. You can get it at Evans' Drug Store, Newark, and Ullman's Drug Store, Granville, Ohio. 2-14-mwt-11

THE NEW KING COMPANY

NEWARK, OHIO

THE HOME OF GOOD SHOES

AMUSEMENTS

GEN.
He wanted vengeance and novelty. The prairie have been his home and when he made his first trip to a big city it was not surprising that he was "roped in" by a confidence gang, and robbed of a fat roll. But the real surprise was meted out to the crooks when the untold "bills" and found only slaps of paper cut to size. While enacting the hero in the "padder game" Sam Brodick only began a series of adventures that will be fully outlined, in brilliant Bluebird photography, when "A Stranger from Somewhere" is exhibited at the Gem theater on Friday with Franklin Farnum and Agnes Vernon playing the leading characters.

ALHAMBRA.
Tonight and Tomorrow.
There are probably more authors, and artists living on McDougall street, Washington Square, New York City and on the immediate surrounding streets than in any spot of similar size in the world. Consequently the life of that section revolves around art in literature and art in paintings and drawings. In "A Square Deal" we see the life of these authors and artists as it is McDougall and Washington square, which made it one street is true Bohemia and we see there the friendship of four people developing and growing until one of them, on the side of his friendship for another, makes a supreme sacrifice. The Alhambra theater will have the pleasure of presenting this production to its patrons tonight and tomorrow.

Friday and Saturday.
The Lark-Farmington production of "Castles for Two" which will be seen at the Alhambra on Friday and Saturday with the beautiful Marie Doro in the "rollick" role is a clever Irish comed drama, the scenes of which were laid in Ireland and Miss Doro was supposed to see the farthest Irish favour through the Emerald Isle.

THE GRAND.
The feature at the Grand theater on Thursday is the motion picture version of Fodor Dostoyevsky's celebrated book "Crime and Punishment." The star is DeWent Hall Caine son of Hall Caine the English author. The supporting cast includes Marguerite Courtot, Charlie Coleman and Sidney Drayton. "He said in his heart, there is no God. That is the theme of "Crime and Punishment" which made it one of the most widely discussed plays ever produced when it was presented on the stage by Richard Mansfield.

Rodion kills a pawnbroker who mercilessly scouges the poor unfortunate who fall into his clutches. He takes the money from the safe and uses it for the needy and manages to keep the guilt from himself, but the crime is fastened on an innocent man, who to escape further torture that a relentless third degree, confesses to a crime he had no hand in. Then comes Rodion's struggle between his conscience and his greed, and through the guidance of a girl of the streets, he rejects the faith he started, acknowledges his guilt and goes to pay the penalty.

AUDITORIUM.
Last Night's Show.
A very small audience witnessed the splendid Charles Dillingham production "Stop, Look, Listen," which made a big hit last season at the Globe theater in New York. The fact that it was a Dillingham production and that Irving Berlin wrote the lyrics and music should have assured it a better patronage. Mr. Berlin is a noted song writer of New York and many of his song hits have been sung in various productions, both amateur and professional. "Stop, Look, Listen" is a collaboration of musical oddities and nonsense and the producing company was way above the average. Al B. White as the character of a theatrical press agent made a great hit with his singing and dancing and his rendition of "I Love a Piano" was responsible for six encores. Leonna Thompson as Violetta, was a dashing soubrette who made an instantaneous hit with the audience. Alton & Alton were another pair of dancers and singers as were ever heard at the Auditorium and their soft shoe steps were a revelation. Mr. White was right when he said that there are only a few customers present tonight and we might as well all get together and have a good time.

"A World of Pleasure."
Newark theater goers are in for a treat today for in the appearance at the Auditorium of "A World of Pleasure" company who came from Wheeling in a special train of their own Pullman. It is strong, the Winter Garden directors can truthfully lay claim to the distinction of being the most complete musical extravaganza that ever saw the calcium light of night at the New York Winter Garden. It is reasonable to suppose that a corps of principals which includes the very best of New York's musical comedy stars, a first class cast and a first class production, would make a hit and indeed they might take part. And the large ensemble which supports the principal cast, can truthfully lay claim to the distinction of being the most complete musical extravaganza that ever saw the calcium light of night at the New York Winter Garden. and that good attractions will win out here.

Katherine Lee Acts Dual Role.
Like her star idol, Virginia Pearson, Katherine Lee plays a difficult dual role in William Fox's great film "Sister Against Sister." This is one of the most difficult parts the six-year-old Fox wonder has ever played. She is also the first child actress to attempt acting two roles. As usual she triumphs.

Katherine plays Katherine and Anne as children—parts taken by Miss Pearson when they grow up.

The Lee children are favorites with Newark audiences and no doubt the Auditorium will be crowded on Friday when this feature is screened in Newark. Cummings, known to many in Newark personally, is also seen in the cast. An added feature that clever filmmaker Charlie Chaplin will be seen in the two reel comedy "The Tramp."

"Ikey and Abe"
The seat sale for "Ikey and Abe" is now on at the Auditorium. The demand for seats for this attraction which will come to the Auditorium theater on Thursday evening for one night only, is very large and a full house is anticipated. The management, owing to the flattering advance reports on the show. This attraction combines all that is best in farce comedy, and as roles with many wonderfully scenic and electrical devices that thrill and delight. Special attention has been displayed in the selection of the cast and the teaming is on a par with the other large farce comedy shows out of New York this season.

John W. Vogel's Big Novelty.
John W. Vogel whose every endeavor has been given to straight minstrelsy, has forsaken the beaten path and this season stands sponsor for the newest hit thing in theatrical—newest because of the conception that suggested combining minstrelsy with opera.

"The offering is in two parts, with many massive, picturesque scenes, principally Japanese, the people of quaint costumes and profuse color schemes. The company is necessarily large for two complete casts of principals are required. Billy Arnold, Tommy Donnelly, Bobby Gossans and Nat. Miller forming the quartette de resistance on the ends, while Charlie Fulton, tenor, Carl S. Graves, baritone, and Claude Arnsden, alto, are the more prominent of the operatic contingent. The performance is so arranged that the first part of a minstrel show is happily blended with scenes and melodies from our best liked operas and, at the same time, allow a sufficient scope for

RADICAL CHANGES IN AGRICULTURAL LAW

The new law governing the Board of Agriculture creates a secretary of agriculture whose salary shall be $4,000 a year and the necessary traveling expenses or other expenses of the secretary while in the discharge of his duties. His duties are many and the new law provides that wherever in the laws the words "board of agriculture" are used, they shall be construed to mean the "secretary of agriculture." He is chosen by the board of agriculture, consisting of ten members, who serve without pay, but who receive their necessary expenses while going about the business of the state. This board elects the secretary.

Powers of Secretary.
All lakes, lands and reservoirs owned by the state and used by the public are under the supervision of the secretary of agriculture. All laws for the protection of fish and game in these streams and lakes are to come under the direction of this secretary. His term of office is for two years and he shall appoint all heads of bureaus, clerks, stenographers, wardens, experts and all other employees of the department and shall fix their salaries in amounts which come under the prescription of the law. The board of agriculture may, by six of the members concurring, veto any appointment made by the secretary.

The secretary of agriculture shall have power and authority to establish bureaus of fair administration; live stock diseases; of markets and marketing; nursery, orchard and bee inspection; sanitary inspection; food inspection; fertilizer, lime, fungicide, insecticide and footcuffs inspection; the protection, preservation and propagation of birds, fish and game; the preparation and publication of statistics relating to the work of the board, timely crop reports and other matters of interest to those engaged in agriculture; chemistry and bacteriology; and he shall have power to establish a state chemical and bacteriological laboratory where all analyses in connection with the law enforcement may be made, and the secretary is empowered and authorized to establish such other bureaus and departments as he may deem necessary.

Advisory Board.
There shall be an advisory board of agriculture consisting of the secretary of agriculture, the dean of the college of agriculture at Ohio State University and the head of the state experimental station at Wooster. The governor is also a member of this board.
The secretary of agriculture by virtue of his office is chief sealer of weights and measures in the state and he is at the head of the fish and game division and has charge directly or indirectly of the enforcement of all game laws.

Keep the Machine in Repair.
Think for a moment. A man who would no more run his motorcar on deflated tires or with sand in the gear box than he would use sulphuric acid for motive power will keep going right on at his business when the trend of his own physical mechanism is flattening out and the gear box of his mind is filling with the wrong kind of grit. The impatient optimism that shakes off a vague oppression with the assurance "I'll be all right tomorrow" has had as much to do with lengthening out the list of bankrupts as any other thing that could be named. You can't correct a bad condition by persisting in the things that cause it. You will only make it worse. You can easily enough, if you are obstinate enough, make it so much worse that it will "be the death of you," or, anyway, put you out of business.

Catalogue Your Books.
Have you ever made an alphabetical list of the books in your library? Why not do it?
Either by title or author, but better by both.
A blank book will answer, but cards are better for the purpose.
It is a great joy to watch the number grow and the only practical way to know just what you have on your own shelves.
Thorson called books "the treasured wealth of the world," and it was well for us to know at least how much of this treasure we possessed.—Exchange.

Why Plates Are Round.
All our plates are circular in shape. Now, a square or oval plate would be just as convenient. Is there any reason why plates should be of their present shape? It seems that if we dig into the far past we may discover the cause. Our remote ancestors ate their food off flat pieces of wood cut from a tree trunk. The tree trunk being cylindrical in shape, the earliest plates were therefore roughly circular, and the shape has been used ever since.

"Anaemia--Lack of Iron--Is Greatest Curse To Health and Beauty of American Women"

Says Dr. King, Physician and Author

Any Woman Who Tires Easily, is Nervous or Irritable, or Looks Pale, Haggard and Worn, Should Have Her Blood Examined for Iron Deficiency.

Administration of Nuxated Iron Will Increase the Strength and Endurance of Weak, Nervous, Careworn Women 200 Per Cent. in Two Weeks' Time in Many Instances.

THE CHILD'S APPEAL

Mother, why don't you take NUXATED IRON and be strong and well and have nice rosy cheeks instead of being so nervous and irritable all the time and looking so haggard and old. The doctor gave some to Susie Smith's mother and she was worse off than you are and now she looks just fine.

"There can be no healthy, beautiful, rosy cheeked woman without iron," says Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York physician and author. "In my recent talks to physicians on the grave and serious consequences of iron deficiency in the blood of American women, I have strongly emphasized the fact that a woman should prescribe more organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for her nervous, run-down, weak, haggard looking woman patients. Pallor means anaemia. The skin of an anaemic woman is pale, the flesh flabby. The muscles lack tone, the brain lags and the memory fails, and often they become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks."

"In the most common foods of America, the starches, sugars, table syrups, candies, polished rice, white bread, soda crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, tapioca, sago, farina, degenerated cornmeal, no longer is iron to be found. Refining processes have removed the iron of Mother Earth from these important foodstuffs, and silly methods of home cooking, by throwing down the waste pipe the water in which our vegetables are cooked are responsible for another grave iron loss."

"Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, you must supply the iron deficiency in your food by taking some form of organic iron, just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt."

"As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away their habit forming drugs and nauseous concoctions and take simple nuxated iron, I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved, who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, etc."

The introduction of the more recent songs, dances, novel specialties and dances. A symphony orchestra of ten pieces, under the direction of Mr. James L. Pinnick, gives added attractiveness to this promising musical comedy event that will make merry at the Auditorium, again on next Saturday. Better telephone or write for your reservations, for Vocal night invariably is capacity night and most of us believe in preparedness.

"Very Good Eddie"
The Auditorium Theater is looking forward to the better business of the season when the Marbury-Constock musical production, "Very Good Eddie," comes next Thursday.
This most popular musical comedy in America today, comes here direct from the 12 months run in New York at the Princess and Casino theaters.

"Fair and Warmer"
One of the most brilliant and widely heralded attractions of the coming season will be "Fair and Warmer," the musical comedy of the "Green Eggs" and "Ham" type, which made such a striking success during the year of its run at the Harris Theater, and which is now being presented in a sensational manner at the end of its first six months.

tion, kidney, liver, heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause which started their disease was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood.

On account of the peculiar nature of woman, and the great drain placed upon her system at certain periods, she requires iron much more than man to help make up for the loss.

Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while double the strength and endurance and entirely rid themselves of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles, in from four to fourteen days' time, simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this, after they had in some cases been doctoring for months with no result.

Don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate, or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. The iron demanded by Mother Nature for the red coloring matter in the blood of her children is also: not that kind of iron. You must take the kind of iron that can be easily absorbed and assimilated to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. I have used Nuxated Iron widely in my own practice in most severe aggravated conditions with unfailing results. I have induced many other physicians to give it a trial, all of whom have given me most surprising reports in regard to its great power as a health and strength builder.

Many an athlete and prize fighter has won the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the fray; while many another has gone down in inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

Dr. Howard James, late of the United States Public Health Service, said: "It should be brought home to the minds of the younger as well as elder women of America, what a wonderful chance will take place, in many cases, when Nuxated Iron is taken; how it will cause the enriched blood to bring the roses to their cheeks, the sparkle to their eyes and the elasticity to their step; how their every function will be stimulated and regulated and that sense of what the French call bien etre will get up with them in the morning and accompany them at night to a sound and perfect sleep. Men, too—those who, in the strenuous strain of business competition, burn up rapidly stores of nervous energy, here is a source of power, and renewed strength and endurance which will be found unfailing."

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not a patent medicine or secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians both in Europe and America. Unlike the older organic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous, run down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron, that they offer to forfeit $150.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman, under 60 who lacks iron, and increase their strength 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Wm. A. Ertman, Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store, and all good druggists.

This is "Dress-Up Week" Then Comes Easter

"Dress-Up" week this year will be the style setting date of the Spring season, instead of Easter. The ladies of this city are taking this week for the special preparations for their spring clothing, and Sunday will mark an unusual turnout of spring styles. It's really a very opportune week to select your spring outfit, for the reason that our collection of is at its best now, in variety of styles, fabrics, colors and sizes. With Easter Sunday so very near, and the matter of spring clothes not yet settled by many women, we suggest that you make your choice at once, so you will be one of those who will be "Dressed Up" this week, and then you will be all ready for the following Sunday, which will be Easter.

The Colorings Are a Charm In The Lovely Silk Dresses

The wonderful gold shades—primrose, raspberry, green, grey, shades of blue, tan, and all the spring-like colorings. Dresses of crepe-de-chine, taffeta and Georgette combinations are beaded, braided and embroidered; wide belts, sashes and fancy corded girdles give a youthful air. Straight line effects in dresses are most popular, and its really wonderful how many new models have come in, each one with some distinctive feature to make it the more appealing. You'll find a pretty navy blue dress with a touch of rose, a handsome black gown embroidered in gold with jet trimming, a white gown embroidered in blue, such combinations as grey and rose, blue with silver trimmings, while others show trimmings of Paisley, or the pretty fancy drops and cord girdles. A try-on will be a pleasure, and its the only way to appreciate their beauty. Handsome models. $18.00 to $45.00

SUPPORT FOR NEW LECTURE COURSE IS ASKED BY SCHOOL

Two of the biggest school events of the school year have passed. These are the annual debates with Zanesville and Mt. Vernon and the high school minstrel. Both were a great success. Newark won its debate from Mt. Vernon unanimously and shared in the decision at Zanesville. Mr. Miller, the coach, has proven himself a success. School enthusiasm was never higher or better than at the debate here with Mt. Vernon. Many words of praise for the minstrel have been heard. Over 3000 people were in attendance. Mr. Klopp deserves all the glory.

The friends of the schools are urged to support the entertainment course which will be offered next year by the high school. This year's course has been unusually good. Mr. Barnes reports that there are so many other things that it is becoming more difficult each year to dispose of course tickets. Newark cannot afford to withdraw its support from this fine class of entertainment for both young and old. It is not the desire of those in charge to make money out of this entertainment course. The income is all invested in talent. The tickets for the course are so cheap that no one needs to hesitate in supporting the course.

The East Main street school will give a social on Friday evening of this week. The funds secured will be used to purchase a lantern for use in this building. All the friends of this school are urged to be present.

The civic society of the high school in conjunction with teachers and pupils of all the schools will have a tree sale on the afternoon of Arbor Day. Cards are being distributed this week and any person desiring to plant young maple trees will do well to order from some pupil. All orders must be in by Friday of this week.

Arbor Day will be celebrated by all schools on Friday, April 13. Already many children have purchased seeds and expect to improve their home grounds. A program will be given at each school building in the afternoon to which the public is invited.

Much interest is being manifested by the pupils in the home and school garden work. Mr. Hopp is visiting every school showing lantern slides of work being done in this line by children of other cities. Parents are urged to permit their children to take part in this work.

CONSTANT HEADACHES

People with thin blood are much more subject to headaches than full-blooded persons and the form of anemia that affects growing girls is almost always accompanied by headache together with digestive disturbances and constipation.

Whenever you have constant or recurring headaches and pallor of the face they show that the blood is thin and your efforts should be directed towards building up your blood. A treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do this effectively and the rich, red blood will remove the headache.

More disturbances to health are caused by thin blood than you have a idea of. When the blood is impoverished the nerves suffer from lack of nourishment and you may have insomnia, neuritis, neuralgia or sciatica. Muscles subject to strain are undernourished and you may have muscular rheumatism or lumbago. If your blood is thin and you begin to show symptoms of these disorders try building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and see if the symptoms do not disappear as the blood is restored to normal.

Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store or send fifty cents to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. The booklet "Building Up the Blood" is free on request.

FINDLAY MAN SUES TO COMPEL COWEN TO VACATE OFFICE

Columbus, Ohio, March 28.—With Attorney-General Joseph McGhee as his counsel, A. R. Taylor, of Findlay, recently appointed State Highway Commissioner, yesterday filed a suit in quo warranto to compel Clinton Cowen to relinquish the position he claims to hold. The petition asks that Cowen be required to set up his interest in the office and that he be ousted from it.

The petition sets forth that Mr. Cowen was appointed August 31, 1915, and that he accepted the office September 4, by filing a bond of $20,000. It is claimed he was appointed under the provisions of the Cass highway act. The failure of the Senate to confirm his appointment also is cited.

The defense will be that Mr. Cowen, in holding office under his original appointment, and that there was no break in continuity by reason of the Cass act. The matter will be pressed to an early hearing.

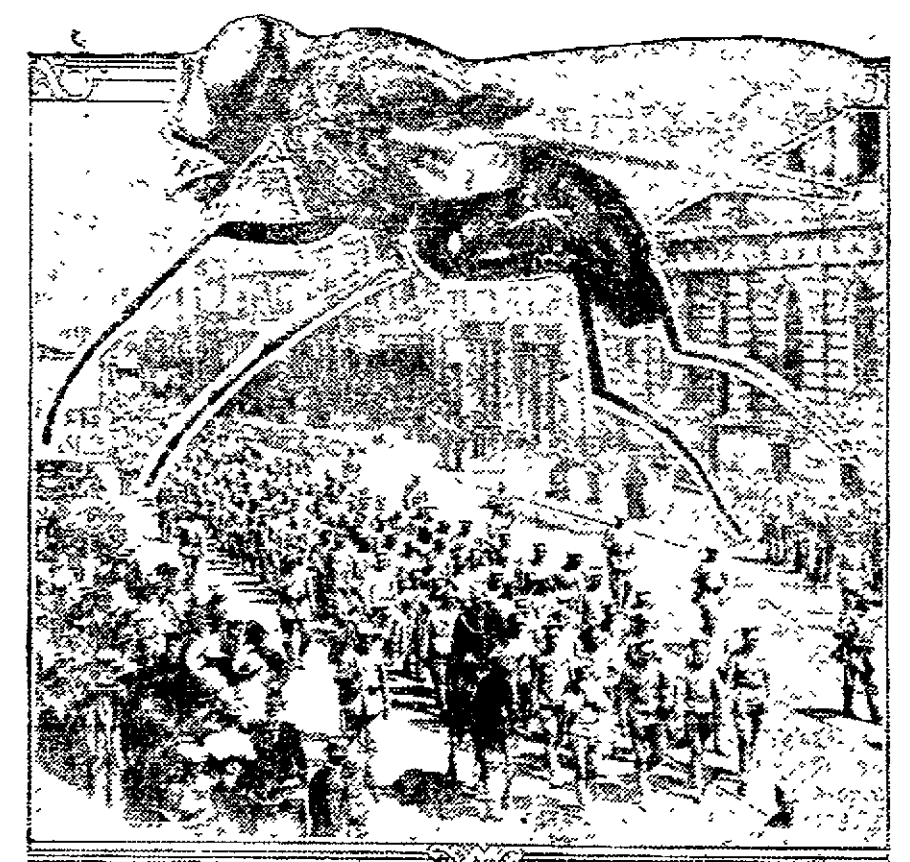

Mr. Cowen is well known in Newark and Granville, having attended school at Denison.

AT ONCE! STOPS STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Makes Sick,
Sour, Gassy Stomachs
Feel Fine.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset, you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder due to acid fermentation.

WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS HERE COMMENTED UPON

The activities of the Newark Chamber of Commerce along the line of making citizens of the foreign born in our midst are given prominent mention in Bulletin No. 9 just issued by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States through its immigration committee. Frank Trumbull of New York City, chairman.

The bulletin says: "Newark, Ohio.—The Chamber of Commerce has secured the organization of a night school for foreigners and on Washington's birthday evening held an Americanization meeting attended by 1,504 persons. On the platform as honored guests were many aliens attending the night school and preparing themselves for citizenship. Governor James M. Cox, the principal speaker, was so impressed with the patriotic response of the many aliens in the audience that he announced: 'There never was anywhere an occasion just like this. Had I known of it in time, I would have issued a state-wide proclamation for meetings in keeping with this "Americanization Night" program here in Newark.'

Already the suggestion that the next Fourth of July be celebrated as "Americanization Day" and that foreign born citizens and citizens in the making play a prominent part in it, has "taken like wildfire" all over the country which is aflame with patriotism. The local Chamber has the matter under very serious consideration and will be glad to receive suggestions of co-operation from various patriotic and civic bodies.
